Blumberg Shares Insights on Technology for UH Finance Faculty, Research Fellows, Doctoral Candidates, & Senior Administrators

HONOLULU--David J. Blumberg, managing partner of Blumberg Capital in San Francisco, and guest speaker of Pacific Business Forums, gave a presentation of the future of global hi-technology to Finance Faculty, Research Fellows, Doctoral Candidates, and Senior Administrators Friday, August 24th at the University of Hawaii's College of Business. After the talk, the University's Associate Dean Jim Wills hosted a wine and cheese reception.

Earlier that morning Blumberg captivated Hawaii's executives at the Plaza Club for Pacific Business Forums second monthly event, at which Lt. Governor Mazie Hirono gave attending thought-leaders her uplifting welcoming remarks. Following Blumberg's presentation, a Q&A period with Hawaii's Bill Richardson-General Partner of HMS Hawaii Mgmt., elevator pitches by entrepreneurs seeking capital, and massive networking ensued.

Blumberg brings more than 17 years of investing experience in venture capital backed technology companies, facilitating IPO and M&A for his portfolio clients. Blumberg is tri-lingual and earned his AB in Government, cum laude from Harvard College and his MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business and INSEAD.

Each month PBF brings a dynamic leaders from the Mainland or Asia to the Islands to share insights into current and emerging trends, opportunities, and business practices across key industries and markets. Pacific Business Forums' Strategic Knowledge Series in Finance, Venture Capital, Technology, Law and New Media offers Hawaii executives valuable resources for moving their business forward in the global marketplace.
